

LEI Medical Model EVC3100

Waste Gas Evacuation and Liquid Aspiration System

List Price: $795.00

The system utilizes a sealed evacuation unit to remove waste gases to the outside air. This is an OSHA compliant method of removing waste gases from the anesthesia machine.

Manufactured with the highest quality, ultra quiet, American made motor. It's maintenance free design will provide years of trouble free service.

The EVC3100 is designed to work with industry standard wall or ceiling outlets.

Features

- Built in circuit breaker
- Hour meter
- Stainless steel enclosure
- Permanent mounting brackets
- 5 year or 10,000 hour warranty

Capacity: 1-20 Anesthesia Machines

- 5 anesthesia machines and 2 liquid aspiration outlets
- 10 anesthesia machines and 1 liquid aspiration outlets
- 20 anesthesia locations using standard WAGD wall outlets

Inlet & Outlet: 1/4 NPT Male pipe thread

Electrical: Voltage: 115, Hz: 50/60 Full Load Amps: 4.0

Agency Compliance: UL Recognized US and Canada (E47479), Certified to UL-507 standards from TÜV-SÜD America Inc. Certified for US and Canada

Wall or Ceiling outlet (specify with ordering)

List Price: $78.00

Please specify waste gas (WADG) or Suction (aspiration) outlets
Connects with 1/2" copper pipe

All evacuation systems require a waste gas interface (WGI) valve on the anesthesia machine. Order LEI Medical P/N EVC629 WGI for this style of evacuation system.

Contact us for more information or a FREE engineering consultation

Phone: 877-620-1500

E-Mail: info@leimedical.com

